Representative Selection Process

Selection Criteria

To be selected for Tumut Representative Basketball Programs, athletes must display elements of the following:

- Skills in the areas of:
 - Ball Handling / Passing
 - Shooting
 - Offensive Movement
 - Defensive Movement
 - Team Play
 - General Game Understanding
- Athletic ability e.g. fitness, speed, height, quick hands and strength
- Desire to become a representative player
- Potential to be socially compatible and display a sense of “team ethic” within a group
- Demonstrated attitude to become a representative basketball player
- Be highly receptive to coaching
- Commitment to working hard at improving mental, physical and basketball skills

Please note:

- Subjectivity is an unavoidable element of the selection process
- Each athlete will be considered against all criteria

Selection Process

The athlete's will be assessed against the criteria by the selection panel which includes the head coach of the team.

Parents will not be able to enter the stadium while trials are in process.

Final Process

At the conclusion of the above process of observation, consultation and evaluation:

- Selection panel to meet and finalise selections.
- Selections will be announced by email & published on social media.

Conflict of Interest

The selectors or head coach must declare if they have a “Conflict of Interest” with any of the athletes who are trialing.

A conflict of interest is defined as a person who has a relationship with an athlete that may affect their ability to apply the athlete selection policy objectively. A “relationship” is determined as being a parent / guardian or sibling to the athlete trialing.

If a conflict of interest is identified, the selector or head coach with whom the conflict of interest applies, will not participate in the evaluation and selection of that athlete

If 50% or more of the selection panel have a conflict of interest with an athlete, a substitute selector will be utilised to maintain selection policy objectivity.

Inability to Trial

If for any reason an athlete is unable to attend the Selection Trial, he/she must email the tumutrepbasketball@gmail.com before trials commence for special consideration. The selection panel will consider the request for special consideration on a case by case basis. Any application for special consideration relating to injury or illness must be accompanied with a doctor’s certificate
